ABOUT EUROL

Eurol is a leading provider of lubrication solutions, committed to developing and producing top-quality lubricants and technical fluids that enable better performance, cost savings, and a lower ecological footprint.

The innovative SYNGIS Technology, featured in Eurol Specialty lubricants, ensures unique lubrication and protection of equipment under all circumstances, as evidenced by the victories of TOYOTA GAZOO Racing in the Dakar Rally.

As a Dutch family business, Eurol has been actively serving clients since 1977, backed by a passionate team and a modern production environment. The products are available in more than 90 countries across various segments, including heavy duty, agriculture, industry, automotive, and racing.

In addition to premium products, Eurol offers commercial and technical support through Dealer and Service Point formulas, extensive digital tools, and the deployment of oil specialists. This ensures that customers are assured of the best products, excellent service, and maximum return on their investment in lubricants.
